Stakeholder Survey Methodology 2021-22

The feedback is collected from Students, Teacher, Parents, Employers and Alumni during the year 2021-22. After analysing the feedback action is taken where ever necessary. The feedback and action taken report is shared with stakeholders.

The institution collects feedback from its stakeholders to evaluate and monitor and evaluate its performance quality on issues related to curriculum and ambience of the Institution. The feedback forms were collected from students, teachers, employers, alumni and parents.

- The following are the different areas targeted for various stakeholders.
- Issues related to Teaching and learning process, issues related to curriculum and institute ambience issues in terms of quality, skills are collected in student feedback form.
- Issues like course suitability and its need base, curriculum/course outcomes, course content, reference material, its availability are addressed in faculty feedback.
- Issues related to students real life problem solving skills, communication skills, team work, other skills and college ambience is addressed in Employer feedback form.
- Course curriculum, Syllabus sufficiency and curriculum design is addressed in Alumni feedback.

The Academic audit Committee designs and collects feedback from its stakeholders to monitor and evaluate its performance curriculum and college ambience related issues. The feedback also considers issues like delivery of curriculum by teachers.

The report of feedback analysis is submitted to Principal, Core committee, concerned heads and BOS for necessary action.

Stakeholder Feedback Survey

The three important elements of the survey methodology were:

- Sample size
- Questionnaire
- Benchmarks for action

Benchmarks for Enhancing Student Experience: Insights from the Student Feedback Survey 2021-22"

Action benchmark: 80% satisfaction (Choice of a rating at 'Satisfactory' or higher, or achieving a score of 3 or above on a scale ranging from 1 to 5).

The institution aims to have a significant majority (at least 80%) of students satisfied ('satisfactory' or higher) with the academic performance and ambiance of the institution. Remedial actions will be initiated if feedback falls below this established benchmark. Similarly, measures will be taken if responses to open-ended questions indicate significant concerns (expressed by over 20% of the population) or serious concerns expressed found actionable.

These action benchmarks, along with suitable actions, provide a comprehensive approach to address any shortcomings in the feedback parameters and continually enhance the quality of education, infrastructure, and student satisfaction across all the parameters.

Benchmarking Excellence: Setting Standards for Employer Feedback Analysis

Employer Feedback is a valuable source of information for the institution to enhance their programs and better prepare students for the workforce. To establish benchmarks for action based on the Employer Feedback Survey and its analysis, the following standards were considered:

70% satisfaction (exercising options "Excellent" or "Good.") on every parameter.

These benchmarks provide actionable standards to guide improvements in various aspects of the institution based on employer feedback. The institution will be regularly reviewing and adjusting these benchmarks as needed, ensuring ongoing alignment with industry expectations and student preparation for the workforce. Key concerns in open-ended questions (expressed by over 30% of the population) or found serious for action will also prompt appropriate action.

Insights and Actionable Areas

The student feedback was found positive in the quantitative survey as more than 80% were satisfied (rating 4 or higher). However, the open-ended questions from students revealed specific concerns that were voiced by over 20% of the respondents crossing the benchmark for action or were noted as serious to warrant an action. Consequently, these concerns have been identified for action:

1. Enrich the syllabus with a more practical-based approach.
2. Enhance coverage of advanced and recent trends.
3. Emphasize the need for frequent evaluation.

Employer Feedback Analysis Report - 2021-22

Context

In the relentless pursuit of aligning academic programs with industry expectations and enhancing students' employability, the institution places paramount importance on insights from employers. The Employer Feedback Survey for the academic year 2021-22, encompassing perspectives from 20 participants, provides a discerning analysis of various dimensions critical to workforce readiness.

This comprehensive report encapsulates the employer community's assessment of SNVMV students, shedding light on competencies such as communication skills, problem-solving abilities, creativity, technological proficiency, and overall satisfaction with the curriculum. Each question, tailored to gauge specific aspects of student performance and institutional support, has been meticulously analyzed to provide a percentage-wise breakdown.

Moreover, the inclusion of open-ended questions in the survey adds a qualitative dimension to the analysis. Employers have been given a platform to provide nuanced feedback, share specific experiences, and articulate suggestions regarding the curriculum and college ambiance. These qualitative insights serve as invaluable narratives that complement the quantitative data, offering a holistic understanding of the strengths and areas for improvement.

The benchmarks set for action, with a minimum threshold of 70% satisfaction on each parameter, serve as guiding standards for continuous improvement. These benchmarks reflect the institution's commitment to staying attuned to industry expectations, ensuring that the curriculum remains robust, and students are well-prepared for the dynamic demands of the workforce.

As we delve into the percentage-wise breakdown of employer responses and explore the rich narratives from open-ended questions, this report aims to unveil commendable attributes in SNVMV students, identify areas for refinement, and outline actionable strategies. The institution remains dedicated to leveraging employer feedback to enhance program effectiveness, foster student success, and fortify the enduring connection between academia and industry.

Parent Feedback Analysis Report 2021-22

Context

In the pursuit of academic excellence, the partnership between educational institutions and parents plays a pivotal role. The Parent Feedback Analysis Report for the academic year 2021-22 is an insightful exploration of the perceptions and experiences shared by a robust sample of 100 parents, reflecting the collaboration between home and educational endeavours for the academic performance and the institutional ambience.

This report meticulously examines the percentage-wise breakdown of responses to a range of questions encompassing crucial aspects of the educational journey. From the relevance of the course curriculum to the adequacy of facilities and the clarity of communication channels, each query is designed to capture nuanced insights that contribute to the holistic understanding of parental satisfaction.

The benchmarks set for actionable insights, with a target agreement rate of 80%, underscore the institution's commitment to not only meeting but exceeding the expectations of parents. This benchmark serves as a beacon, guiding the institution toward continuous improvement and alignment with its educational objectives. Responses falling below the benchmark or were noted as serious in the narrative responses trigger a call to action emphasizing the institution's dedication to addressing concerns and fostering a positive learning environment.

Additionally, the inclusion of open-ended questions in the survey provides parents with an opportunity to share qualitative feedback, allowing for a more comprehensive understanding of their experiences. These narratives enrich the report, offering a deeper context to the quantitative data and revealing valuable suggestions and observations from the parental perspective.

As the institution embarks on this journey of analysis, exploring both the numerical breakdown and the narratives provided by parents, this report aims to celebrate the commendable aspects of the institution's collaboration with parents, identify areas for improvement, and reinforce the commitment to providing an educational environment that nurtures the holistic development of students.
