Implementation of Guidelines of Statutory/Regulatory Bodies at Sarojini Naidu Vanita Maha Vidyalaya (SNVMV)

Sarojini Naidu Vanita Maha Vidyalaya (SNVMV) upholds a steadfast commitment to the redressal of student grievances, with a particular focus on issues such as sexual harassment and ragging. One crucial aspect of this commitment lies in the rigorous implementation of guidelines set forth by statutory and regulatory bodies governing higher education in India.

Establishment of the Sexual Harassment Grievance Redressal Committee (SHGRC): In alignment with UGC guidelines, SNVMV has instituted the Sexual Harassment Grievance Redressal Committee (SHGRC). Comprising experienced faculty members, counselors, and student representatives, the SHGRC plays a pivotal role in ensuring a fair and unbiased investigation of complaints related to sexual harassment. SNVMV's commitment to a safe and respectful campus environment is exemplified through the proactive measures taken by the SHGRC.

Zero Tolerance for Ragging: SNVMV aligns itself with UGC guidelines on the prevention and prohibition of ragging in higher education institutions. The institution's Anti-Ragging Committee (ARC), composed of senior faculty members, counselors, and student representatives, works diligently to maintain a safe and ragging-free campus environment. The ARC implements preventive measures and takes swift actions when needed, fostering a secure atmosphere for all students.

Dedicated Committee for SC/ST Grievance Redressal: In accordance with UGC guidelines, SNVMV has established a dedicated committee to redress grievances of SC/ST students. This committee, comprising senior faculty members, counselors, representatives of the SC/ST community, and student representatives, ensures the prompt and fair resolution of grievances related to caste, tribe, or community-based discrimination or harassment. SNVMV prioritizes inclusivity and equality in its commitment to student welfare.

Comprehensive Compliance with Regulatory Bodies: Beyond UGC, SNVMV adheres to guidelines issued by other regulatory bodies, including the Ministry of Education and the All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE). This comprehensive approach ensures that the institution is aligned with the broader regulatory framework, prioritizing the safety and well-being of its students.

Dedication to a Safe, Inclusive, and Conducive Learning Environment: In essence, SNVMV's commitment to implementing guidelines from statutory and regulatory bodies underscores its dedication to providing a safe, inclusive, and conducive learning environment. The institution continually strives to meet and exceed the standards set by these bodies, ensuring that the rights and well-being of students remain at the forefront of its mission.
