CAPACITY BUILDING ACTIVITIES

Sarojini Naidu Vanita Maha Vidyalaya regularly imparts training to the students in various capacity building activities. This is in accordance with the college principle of providing holistic development of the student.

Capacity building activities are essential for enhancing individual and organizational capabilities. These activities encompass a variety of skill sets crucial for personal and professional development.

1. Soft skills: include interpersonal abilities such as teamwork, problem-solving and emotional intelligence, which are vital for effective collaboration and leadership.
2. Language and communication skills: focus on improving proficiency in verbal and written communication, ensuring clarity and fostering better understanding in diverse settings.
3. Life skills: involve essential competencies like time management, critical thinking and adaptability, which help individuals navigate everyday challenges and achieve personal growth.
4. ICT/Computing skills: are increasingly important in the digital age, covering areas such as computer literacy, data management, and the effective use of technology to enhance productivity and innovation.

Together, these capacity building activities equip individuals with the tools needed to thrive in various professional and personal contexts, driving both personal and organizational success.

Glimpse of few capacity building activities are listed below:
